I. INTRODUCTION

D.E.S. Shri Navalmal Firodia Law College, Pune, organised an academic visit to the Hon'ble Bombay High Court, Mumbai, on 22 October 2026. The visit was attended by approx. 100 students, accompanied by four faculty members and one non-teaching staff member. The initiative aimed to provide students with practical exposure to the functioning of the High Court and to familiarize them with judicial proceedings in both civil and criminal matters.

II. FACULTY AND STAFF ACCOMPANYING THE VISIT

The delegation comprised the following faculty members:

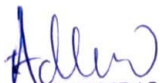

1. Mr. Chinmay Powar
2. Ms. Amruta Oke
3. Mr. Saurabh Jadhav
4. Ms. Smita Gaikwad

The non-teaching staff member accompanying the delegation was Mr. Ravindra Bhandari.

III. OBJECTIVES OF THE VISIT

The principal objectives of the academic visit were:

- To familiarize students with the functioning and institutional structure of the Bombay High Court.
- To provide first-hand exposure to civil and criminal court proceedings.
- To help students understand the practical application of procedural and substantive laws.
- To acquaint students with courtroom etiquette, judicial discipline and professional conduct.
- To bridge the gap between theoretical legal education and the practical functioning of the judicial system.

IV. PROCEEDINGS AND OBSERVATIONS

During the visit, the students visited the courtroom of the Hon'ble Chief Justice and multiple other courtrooms of the Bombay High Court. The visit included exposure to both civil and criminal courtrooms, enabling students to observe different aspects of the judicial process. The courtroom visits offered students an opportunity to familiarize themselves with the functioning of the Bench, the role of advocates and the general conduct of proceedings before the High Court. Exposure to civil and criminal courtrooms also helped students appreciate the diversity of matters dealt with by the judiciary and the importance of procedural rules in the administration of justice. As part of the academic visit, the students also visited the museum and library located within the premises of the Hon'ble Bombay High Court. The visit to the museum offered them an opportunity to appreciate the institution's rich history, heritage and evolution, while the library provided a glimpse into the importance of legal literature, research resources and reference materials in the study and practice of law. These visits helped students understand the historical and intellectual foundations of the legal profession and highlighted the significance of preserving legal heritage and promoting continuous learning and research among aspiring legal professionals.

V. LEARNING OUTCOMES

The academic visit contributed to the students' understanding of the judicial system through direct exposure to the High Court environment. The key learning outcomes included:

1. Practical understanding of judicial proceedings: Students gained exposure to the functioning of civil and criminal courtrooms.
2. Courtroom etiquette and professional conduct: The visit familiarized students with the decorum and discipline expected within a court of law.
3. Understanding the role of the judiciary: The courtroom visits provided an opportunity to appreciate the judicial institution's role in the administration of justice.
4. Application of classroom learning: The experience helped students relate their academic study of law and procedure to the practical setting of court proceedings.
5. Professional orientation: The visit encouraged students to develop a deeper understanding of advocacy and the responsibilities associated with the legal profession.

VI. CONCLUSION

The academic visit to the Hon'ble Bombay High Court on 22 October 2026 was a meaningful experiential-learning initiative undertaken by D.E.S. Shri Navalmal Firodia Law College, Pune. The participation of 100 students, accompanied by faculty members and non-teaching staff, enabled a substantial student delegation to gain exposure to the functioning of one of the country's prominent High Courts.

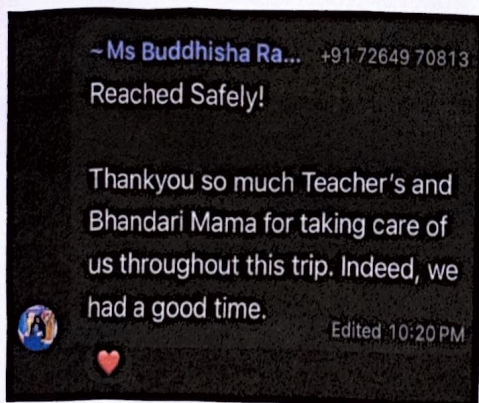

The opportunity to visit the courtroom of the Hon'ble Chief Justice and multiple civil and criminal courtrooms enriched the students' understanding of judicial proceedings and complemented their classroom learning. Such initiatives form an important part of legal education by helping students develop practical awareness, professional discipline and a deeper appreciation of the administration of justice.

Thank you so much Amruta ma'am for managing the Bombay High Court visit so well and patiently handling everything at every stage, especially with such a large number of students with a small team to guide them. I wanted to thank you and the managing team yesterday but couldn't because of the last minute rush. Forever grateful for this experience and your efforts!
